CADENCE PULSE · YOUR TEAM PROFILE

How you two work together.

Your own result from the check-up: six areas, what stands out, and three things to work on, each with a free first step.

AT A GLANCE

Strongest on decisions. Most to gain on direction.

AREAS CHECKED	STEADY	LOOK CLOSER	HIGHEST SCORE
6	1	5	67 / 100
answered alone	Decisions	worth a conversation	Decisions

- Steady. This works between you. Keep it that way.
- Look closer. Worth a conversation soon. Not a verdict on either of you.

Most pairs have a few look-closer areas. It is the starting point, not the score, that matters. This is your own result only. Where you and Marc differ appears when you both say yes.

HOW IMPORTANT IS CHANGE TO YOU

5 / 10

HOW CONFIDENT YOU ARE THAT YOU TWO CAN

8 / 10

Confidence higher than urgency is a good place to start: you believe you can change it. The next pages show where.

YOUR SIX AREAS

What your answers say.

Direction

LOOK CLOSER

45

You want the same company in five years, but not yet the same next 12 months. You pull in different directions on a priority about weekly.

Roles

LOOK CLOSER

52

Areas of ownership are not fully agreed. A few times you both worked on the same thing, and once something fell between you.

Decisions

67

Clear on who decides hiring and the roadmap, and you never postpone a decision to avoid disagreement. A tie-break rule is still missing.

Conflict

LOOK CLOSER

50

You disagree a little about the work, which is healthy. The tension between you as people is higher than the tension about the work.

Trust

LOOK CLOSER

50

It feels safe to take a risk in front of each other. Bringing up tough issues, and feeling your skills are used, is harder.

Energy & load

LOOK CLOSER

52

You often feel worn out at the end of the day, and switching off after work happens about weekly.

Scores run from 0 to 100, by fixed rules that are the same for every pair. The lines on each bar mark 50 and 75.

WHAT TO WORK ON

Three things to start with.

Each one has a free first step you can take this week, on your own or together.

ROLES

Write down who owns what

Free first step. This week: 30 minutes, one page, two columns. Each of you lists what you think you own, then compare.

DIRECTION

Agree on the next 12 months

Free first step. Each of you writes your top three priorities alone. Compare them over coffee. Keep the ones you share.

CONFLICT

Take the heat out of one topic

Free first step. Pick one topic that keeps coming back. Talk only about the work in it, for 20 minutes, with a timer.

A NOTE ON ENERGY

You said you often feel worn out at the end of the day. If that goes on, talk to someone you trust, your coach, or your doctor. In Spain you can call 024 at any time.

WHAT CAN COME NEXT, IF YOU WANT IT

Work on this together, at the lake.

The Cadence Weekend: three nights at the Lakehouse with up to three other founding pairs. No investors in the room. Then 90 days of follow-through, and the same check-up again on day 90.

YOUR WEEKEND WOULD INCLUDE

EVERY WEEKEND

Alignment

Direction, roles and decision rights, written down.

EVERY WEEKEND

YOUR DATA

Who sees what.

You	All your answers and this result. Always.	Everything
Marc	Only where you two differ, and only because you both said yes. Never your answers.	If you both agree
Your coach	Nothing, unless you ask for a call or a plan check.	Only if you ask
Northwind Capital	Only combined patterns from 5 or more teams. Never your name, answers, words or this result.	Never you
